SPEED BOAT LIGHTNING WINS RACES

Moss Point Boat Captures
Two of Three Outboard
Boat Races Sunday

"Lightning," an outboard motor boat owned and skippered by William Dale of Ocean Springs, captured two trophies in the "All Weston" outboard motor races in the course north of the traffic bridge at Bay St. Louis Sunday, coming in first in two of the three races. He won in both the class B and class C races. In the third race of the day, the free-for-all or unlimited class, the Aviator 24, owned by Arthur Duvic of New Orleans, won first trophy and the Red Gold, owned by Louis Gorenflo of Biloxi, captured the second place, also winning a trophy.

The races were the third of a series which Breath & Cue, local agents for Johnson motors, have sponsored this season, and the four handsome trophies awarded were donated by the Westons, hence the name of the races as "All Weston."

A large crowd from all sections of the Coast were in attendance to witness the races, coming in spite of the threatening clouds which seemed to portend rain but fortunately the rain preceding the races was all that fell during the afternoon.

The course for the races Sunday was changed to parallel the beach road and lean toward the Bay St. Louis shore, thus making it possible for motorists to park in their cars and view the races.

Entries in the Races

In the class B race there were four entries, Lightning, Red Gold, Two and a Half and Last Flea.

In the class C race six boats participated, Lightning, Red Gold, Two and a Half, Aviator, Neptune and Debutante.

There were ten entries in the free-for-all, Hertz Special, Mercury, Green Gold, Red Gold, Aviator, Neptune, Debutante, Lightning, Last Flea, and Two-and-a Half.

The Green Gold and Mercury entered the third race but collided just as they were starting, the Green Gold capsizing and the splash from this boat drowning out the Mercury's engine, so that neither boat raced.

The Mary Anne, owned by Horatio Weston was used as the official boat and J. T. Jordy, Grady Perkins, and C. A. Breath, Sr., acted as officials.

The next race which Breath & Cue will foster will be held at the Bay course, September 9, C. A. Breath, Sr., announces.

TWO PIECES OF BAY PROPERTY CHANGE HANDS RECENTLY

Sales Totaling $28,000 Are Announced By C. Greer Moore, Local Realtor

Two sales of Bay property are reported for the past few days. One was the J. W. Sherrouse tract, which is 180 feet on the beach by 400 feet deep, four bedroom house on the property, which was purchased by Uriel Burk of New Orleans for $25,000. The second sale was that of the R. M. Luke home on Dunbar avenue and Burdett street to Charles Traub, Jr. The listing price on this place was $3,000. Both these sales were made by C. Greer Moore, local real estate dealer.

In discussing the real estate business in the Bay area for the fall, he stated that he saw prospects bright for a number of investments to be made and a number of pieces of property to be sold.

Some Good Publicity

J. N. Wisner of Bay St. Louis is responsible for much of the hearty welcome accorded the Know Mississippi Better Train at its stop at Boise, Idaho. He is well acquainted there and he chose about sixty names of prominent citizens and wrote them a letter telling them of the coming of the Mississippians and the citizens responded in a delightful manner, turning out with a band which played "Dixie," to which the train band responded in tune with the playing of Dixie.

In the issue of the Mississippi Builder which was taken aboard the train there was a most interesting article written by Mr. Wisner in verse form telling of the Bay and Waveland district.

Yeggs Worked Hard But Got No Results

Laurel, Miss., Aug. 21.—After working hard for more than an hour on the safe of the Jitney Jungle, at Kingston, a Laurel suburb, safecrackers were forced to depart empty handed, when frightened away by neighbors aroused by the noise of an explosion set off by the thieves, leaving behind $275 untouched.

Entrance to the store was gained through a rear door, the safe was well soaped and the charge poured in, but it was permitted to sink too far down the sides of the door and only a portion of one bottom corner was torn away.

Prizes will be given for the best all-round community exhibits consisting of agricultural and home products.

He is much interested in the future of the magazine which he is handling for L. O. Crosby and associates who are publishing this state wide magazine.

Vicksburg To Have A Municipal Airport

Vicksburg, Miss., Aug. 21.—At a meeting of the city board held yesterday afternoon, Mayor H. H. Hossley was authorized to take up options on land for a municipal airport.

There will be nearly 30 acres in the site, made up of three tracts, and the cost will be approximately $11,000. One of the tracts, about eleven acres, is the property of Alderman L. C. Biedenhake and this he will deed to the city as a gift.

After grading and clearing the site will not start until some growing crops on a portion of the land are gathered.

An interesting feature of the purchase lies in the fact that the land, located on the Oak Ridge road, running northeast of the city, has on it the old family burying ground of the Vick family and the tomb of Newitt Vick, who founded the city in 1826, with those of other members of his family.

Interested In Property

Frank T. Wisner of Laurel, wealthy lumberman and capitalist, was a recent visitor to Bay St. Louis. Mr. Wisner came to look over property in the Bay and Waveland and expressed himself as highly interested in the prospects for a successful development in this area.

Picayune Man Is Struck By Lightning

Picayune, Miss., Aug. 21.—A badly bruised shoulder and leg are reminders of an electrical display here Sunday that came near costing W. F. Marks his life.

Marks, who is a machinist for the Goodyear Yellow Pine Lumber Company, was knocked unconscious when a bolt of lightning struck wires leading into the shop where he worked.

He was dragged from under a tank by A. T. Stewart and C. A. Bennett, both of whom received shocks, as did others working nearby.

GAME CALLED ACCOUNT OF RAIN.

The baseball game between the local Maccabees team and the Gulf Coast Stars, scheduled for last Sunday, was called off after the last half of the second inning because of rain.

It looked like a pretty good game up to that time the Bees leading by a score of 1 to 0.

The Gulf Coast Stars have a very good team and will meet the Bees again on the local diamond before the close of the season.

The Governor has recently completed a speaking tour in a number of counties and in his itinerary for the coming tour he will reach those 40 counties which have not been visited, speaking at one to several towns to the county, it was said.

He has said that a system of hard surfaced highways, the establishment of a state printing plant and revenue will be the basis of his call to the extraordinary session and these subjects will form the topics of his speeches.

The Governor spent Tuesday in Poplarville to cast his vote at his home polling place in the Democratic primaries and returned to Jackson the middle of the week.

JACK LADNER OF BAY CHEVROLET COMPANY WINS MEMBERSHIP

Bay Auto Salesman Is Chosen Member of National "72" Club

Jack Ladner, salesman with the Bay Chevrolet Company, has been notified of his selection to membership of the "72" club, this honor coming to him in this national club maintained by the Chevrolet automobile manufacturing company because he has met the special requirements of having sold a minimum of 72 automobiles from October 1, of last year to August 1, of this year.

Mr. Ladner has already received a diamond studded pin as one of the trophies or prizes in this national competition in salesmanship and other prizes will be awarded.

He will attend a meeting in New Orleans of members of this "72" club Monday which will include men from Mississippi, Louisiana and part of Alabama which form this district and at this meeting other prizes will be given.

Mr. Ladner was reared in the Bay area and this is his second year as an auto salesman. He has been with the Bay Chevrolet Company since it was opened last year by Leo G. Ford as manager.

He is the only member on the Coast to be elected to membership in the "72" club, the other salesman being connected with the agency at Gulfport.

EMPLOYEES OF FRUIT COMPANY SPEND DAY HERE

One Thousand From the City Are Guests Thursday at College Grounds

Fully 1,000 members of the United Frutico Club of New Orleans and their families visited Bay St. Louis Thursday on an annual outing, coming on a special train that left the New Orleans station at 7:15 in the morning and leaving the Bay at 8:30 o'clock at night after a very pleasant day on the Coast.

St. Stanislaus College campus was headquarters for the large crowd for the day and the pier and waters of the Mississippi Sound were much enjoyed. Water sports of all kinds, games, races and other entertainments featured the amusements in which many participated.

The Unifruitco Club is composed of employees of the United Fruit Company. Thomas P. Burke is president; James D. McGovern is vice-president; Miss Winnie Schultz is secretary and George de Jaham is treasurer, and the outing to the Bay was arranged through this group of officers, while special committees saw to every want and need of the large group of pleasure seekers.

A century and a half ago this country was beginning to shape its destiny. What existed in the "settlements" newly made states, should not be confused with present day America. The change has been so vast that one is amazed to read the diary of Francois Marquis de Barbe-Marsbois, whose reports on the customs of the northeast at that time are printed in the Atlantic Monthly for August.

As summarized in the New York Times: "In 1779 the people began the day with wine and cakes; at 10 in the morning they drank tea or coffee and ate fruit or cold meat; wine was drunk with every visitor and often before sitting down to a midday dinner that lasted two hours; at 5 there was more drinking and a frugal supper topped off the gastronomics of the day.

"There were no napkins; the long ends of the table cloth served that purpose. The women all sat together at table; they left at dessert and the men drank and told the usual kind of post-prandial stories. The women wore no rouge or powder and what stays they wore were loose.

"The state severely punished infractions of ordinances, but if a man paid the equivalent of fifty dollars he might beat his wife. They had ugly houses with no rooms; opened the doors themselves; the Judges went about their circuits afoot and the leading citizens did the family marketing.

"The museum building of the university was "hardly extraordinary," and the college president made a bad error in Latin while welcoming the diary keeper and his friends. A very great man of the colony, revered in history, scorned as did his neighbors, the use of a handkerchief for specific purposes. One could not mention knees, legs or garters to the ladies, but it was agreeable to suggest 'bundling' to one of them."

SUCCESS ENVY AND MONEY.

One of the strangest phenomena of human nature is the trait that impels some people to envy a successful person. We have seen evidences of this spirit in Bay St. Louis and elsewhere.

It would seem that mankind would respect a man in the task which he undertakes because, as a rule, it requires hard work and energy and other good qualities to be successful. That less fortunate people like to see failure follow triumph and watch with greedy eyes the apparent downfall of a high standard is, it seems, one of the unfavorable commentaries of present day life.

While we deplore this existing antipathy to well-to-do and successful people we realize that it has its foundation in the current, popular belief that much success is ill-gotten and rests upon laurels unfairly won. The judgment of the average man and woman does not rest entirely upon the height of the bank balance but also takes into consideration the verdict of society upon the methods of the man who has accumulated a competence.

We would not have the young people of Hancock county believe that the dollars amassed are symbols of success. While very often a fickle popular regard is based upon the size of a man's bank balance there are evidences of respect and attitudes of honor that come to men only through lives of service to others. These are not to be won by the dollar-miser with all his bags of wealth.

WHO OWNS THE AIR?

The theory of the law is that ownership of land carries with it the dominion of the air and all minerals beneath the surface. The latter class of property rights have been well adjudicated in mining operations but the former have been theoretical entirely until the advent of the airplane.

A property owner in Massachusetts, living near an airport, now seeks an injunction to prevent airplanes from flying low over his estate. The matter is in the courts and will probably go to the highest tribunal in the land in order to definitely settle the rights.

While stringent regulations should protect the owner of land from unnecessary noises and excessive danger the air should be free for travel. Just as a-navigable river is a waterway to be used by the public under restrictions and regulations, so must the air be free for use by the public, under suitable conditions to be formulated by proper agencies.

MORE MEN IN CHURCH.

Along comes a statement from the Congregational showing that more men are joining the church than women, which will probably surprise some folks who think that all religion belongs to the women and that men are solely concerned with following evil.

Of course, the Congregationalists have more women members than men, but Rev. Herbert E. Rugg says that if the present ratio continues there will be more men than women in twenty-five years.

Just why some people think that men are not religious is hard for us to figure out. We know that there are some so-called he-men in Bay St. Louis, just like those that exist everywhere, who think they are above the call of religion and deem themselves independent by staying outside the church. Most of them do not even fool themselves with their arguments against the church. They do not even fool themselves when they talk bunk about religion.

PROLONG YOUR OWN LIFE.

One of the most significant trends in advancing, or prolonging, human life is the stress that is being laid on periodical health examinations. There are many diseases that kill only because of ignorance that they exist. People think they are well and for that reason ignore the sound advice of leading physicians that they allow themselves to be examined regularly by thoroughly trained and scientific men.

There are many diseases that begin insidiously, without throwing pain into the body to warn the victim. They can be detected by a competent examination and arrested at inception, but if allowed to develop unmonitored invariably kill.

Readers of The Echo have seen this idea before in our columns. They will see it again. In the meantime, there is no sense in reading our warning unless you act upon it. That means, be examined at once. If you think you are well and sound, see that you are.

UNIVERSALLY TRUE.

If there is a reader of The Sea Coast Echo who still believes that advertising is useless we invite attention to the things purchased by the non-believer. If this person will take an inventory of the things purchased by himself he will be surprised to find how many of them are "advertised" goods.

One of the beauties about some laws is that they work universally. For instance twelve inches make a foot in small communities as well as in large cities. Correct advertising pays profits, also, in both locales. The medium is different but results follow judicious advertising in The Sea Coast Echo as well as in New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

Why Men Farm

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(Copyright, 1927)

John Moody studies and thinks, and predicts five more years at least of rising values and prosperity. "The old breeders of financial panic that brought on the crisis of 1893, 1903 and 1907 have disappeared."

"We are living in a new kind of America, with a new kind of prosperity. 'America's world of today is not the world of twenty years ago,'" says Moody.

If you were feeling gloomy, cheer up.

Many are prosperous, NOT all. Barney Deboka, having vainly hunted a job, stood at a restaurant window, watching a woman turning butter cakes. He fell in a faint and doctors are treating him for starvation.

Great is the power of civilization, training a man so well that he stands watching food until he drops of hunger rather than steal. Man is a calculating animal.

Delegations of college men from different parts of the United States will record their voices on talking machines that scientists may study "American dialects."

The main thing is that all of them are understood from New York to San Francisco.

In Europe traveling 3,000 miles from Oslo to the southeast, you would hear Norwegian, Swedish, Danish, German, Czech-Slavonian, Hungarian, Roumanian, Bulgarian, Turkish, Greek, and, in Egypt, Arabic, twelve different languages in a 3,000 mile trip, and not hear one-half the languages that Europe speaks.

Europe feels the need of an "Inter-language." The sensible thing to do would be make that language English, that all waiters and clerks need, and nearly all educated Europeans know.

National pride prevents that. So why not use Latin, once the universal learned language, making it possible for Erasmus to speak to Henry the Eighth, for all learned men in Europe to talk to each other through their books? Nothing could be more hideous than a made to order language.

Russia named a dictator, with absolute power over crops, their production and distribution.

Our farmers will watch that experiment for the benefit of producer and consumer, but will not want any crop dictator here.

The thing that reconciles a farmer to his lot is the fact that he is his own boss.

Tell him that others must decide what he shall plant, what price he shall ask, and he will join the crowd to the cities.

Men do not farm merely for profit. They farm because land ownership and management, plus independence, give them intense pleasure. If profits were the only inducement, there would be no farmers.

An old gentleman, aged 104, arrived from Lithuania to see this country. He said he didn't believe in "spending all your life in one place" so he only lived 104 years in Lithuania. He danced a jig for reporters, said he had given up tobacco eight years ago, but "never found that liquor ever hurt anybody."

He will change his mind if he tries certain brands on sale in this country.

HARRISON COUNTY
PROPOSES TO BUILD
BEACH BOULEVARDHope to Construct Roadway
Length of Present Wall—
To Pay With Gas Tax

A Beach Boulevard paralleling the seawall throughout the extent of the beach front in Harrison county is proposed by the Board of Supervisors and is supported by many citizens who favor such a project.

It is proposed to construct this roadway in a manner similar to that of the short section of beach road in the port just east of the Great Southern Hotel. It is believed that a beach roadway along the top of the seawall will greatly reduce the congestion of traffic of "hundreds" of automobiles which use the present highway.

The new proposed highway will be paid for with the addition of one cent gasoline tax which was made legal with a bill at the recent legislature for a county to assess for roadway and protection purposes.

The city of Gulfport and Harrison county will ask permission to lay out such a roadway, should it be voted, across the Great Southern Hotel property east of the pier and the property lying between the Mississippi Power Company's plant and the G. S. I. Railroad.

The Chamber of Commerce at Pass Christian at its meeting last week voted approval of the construction of such a beach boulevard as that proposed. Other organizations have placed themselves on record as favoring such a roadway.

Short Course for Colored
4-H Club Is Success.

The second annual state short course for 4-H Club boys and girls in the negro division of the Agricultural extension department closed a very successful session at Jackson College, Jackson, Miss., Saturday, August 18. This short course was conducted by M. M. Hubert, district agent, Jackson, A. C. Oliver, district agent for women and girls, Clarkdale, and G. C. Cypress, negro boys' club agent.

This course included instructions in bread making, hat making, butter making, dress making, poultry, table setting, for girls which was given by the home demonstrators from the different counties represented. The course for boys included live stock judging, poultry judging, seed corn judging, pot to judgment, plowing and milking, which was taught by the record at farm agents from the different counties represented.

Among the many girls and boys representing the twenty-seven counties, Leola Travis and Rosemary Bowers were included as representatives of Hancock county. The girls left for Jackson with the determination of bringing the "bacon home."

Leola is now considered the honored contestant who will represent the state of Mississippi in the bread making in the International contest to be held at Tuskegee in December, during the meeting of the annual club camp for negro boys and girls.

Leola also entered the hat making contest and brought home a very neatly made hat.

Rosemary entered the oratorical and table setting contest and was honored as second winner of the oratorical contest with a per cent of 90.

She also brought home many new ideas of how to properly set a table. Should something happen to prohibit the first winner from going to Tuskegee then Rosemary will represent the state in the International contest.

The three representatives from Hancock county which includes the agent, Bessie Rainey, came home very happy over having represented the county so well.

Being Reconditioned In Boston Navy Yards

Boston, August 18.—Shedding the decay of 132 years, "Old Ironsides" is growing young again.

As the days pass in the drydock at the Boston Navy Yard the old frigate feels new ribs forming in her massive frame, new strength growing in her ancient hull.

But renewing the youth of the constitution is a Herculean task. Lieut. John A. Lord, U. S. N., grizzled master builder of such steel superdreadnaughts as the New York and the Arizona and designer and builder of the wooden craft, too, is surgeon-in-charge of the operation.

The new proposed highway will be paid for with the addition of one cent gasoline tax which was made legal with a bill at the recent legislature for a county to assess for roadway and protection purposes.

The city of Gulfport and Harrison county will ask permission to lay out such a roadway, should it be voted, across the Great Southern Hotel property east of the pier and the property lying between the Mississippi Power Company's plant and the G. S. I. Railroad.

A TALE OF A NEEDLE.

(Mrs. Amanda Brown, of Atlanta, ran a needle in her thumb twenty-eight years ago, and last week it came out just under her ear.—Georgia paper.)

Once upon a luckless night. Lay a needle, sharp and bright, Waiting for some barefoot wight.

Came a babe all clothed for bed; Came with slow, uncertain tread, By the hand of mamma led.

"Ow" and "wow" the infant cried, "Gracious me!" the mamma sighed As she saw the crimson tide.

Yet, though peal was piled on peal, Mamma could not find the steel, Which the baby seemed to feel.

Long that needle traveled through Baby's system, yet she grew Same as other babies do.

Years in quick succession fly; Baby weds and by and by Other babies prattle nigh.

Centuries in silence flow— Centuries a score or so. Generations come and go.

Through them all this needle ran, Now just let some Georgia man Beat this whopper if he can.

MALLINI WINS DECISION OVER SAILOR RITCHIE IN HARD TEN ROUND BOUT

Dud Carver Knocks Out Ralph Ewing In First Round—Red Davis Wins—Moran and Peterson Fight On August 28th

The local fans were given their money's worth, in fact, a real treat Tuesday night when Busier Mallini, known as the "Whirling Dervish," of Kiln and New Orleans, met and defeated Sailor Ritchie, also of New Orleans, and in 1925 middleweight champion of the U. S. Navy, in a fast and hard fought ten-round bout at the Legion's new arena in Sycamore street. Both fighters were warned repeatedly for fouling, the sailor for hitting Mallini low several times and Mallini for roughing it. Several times it seemed as though Mallini was trying to wrestle Ritchie and once after the bell rang ending the third round Mallini shot a right to Ritchie's head.

Although the fans "booed" referee Mancini's decision when he gave it to Mallini, he could not do otherwise because of the fact Mallini led the score from start to finish.

This was Ritchie's first appearance in a local ring and he made many friends by his willingness to stand up to the toe and scratch with his opponent.

Dud Carver Scores One-Round K. O.

In the first round scheduled for six rounds, "Dud" Carver, once the pride of Bay St. Louis, scored a clean knock out over Ralph Ewing, of Biloxi, in the first round. Dud showed some of his old-time speed and also that he had a knock-out wallop, when a left jab to the chin followed by a straight right to the solar plexus put Ewing down for the count after about one minute and thirty seconds of the first round.

Red Davis Scores K. O.

In the scheduled four-round preliminary Red Davis, of Ingatown, knocked out Harold Bourgeois of Waveland, in the second round, after having been floored by Bourgeois in the first. Just as they rushed from their corners in the first round, a right to the jaw sent Red down, a few seconds later another right to Red's jaw made him wobble, but after that he was more careful and in the second round had Bourgeois on the floor, the second time for the K.O. count.

Negroes Battle

The opening bout was scheduled four-round between two negroes, Kid Tim Hamilton and Kid Nene. Tim knocked out Nene in the third round.

Young Moran and Little Boy Peterson Fight Next Tuesday Night.

"Young" Norman Moran of Pass Christian, and "Little Boy" Peterson of Kiln, were introduced to the fans. They will meet in the local arena on next Tuesday night, August 28th, over the ten round route, winner take all.

Russell Doubt, of New Orleans, who fought Peterson a hard six-round draw a couple of weeks ago will meet the winner of the Moran-Peterson bout here on Labor Day.

ALABAMA GRID STAR NAMED ASSOCIATE COACH AT ACADEMY

Gulf Coast Military Academy Chooses Johnson to Assist Coach Bobo

James H. "Jimmy" Johnson, star athlete of the University of Alabama Crimson Tide of 1927, has been named associate coach to William H. Bobo at the Gulf Coast Military Academy, it was announced by officials of the school this week.

Johnson is the boy who brought glory to the Southland with that memorable plunge across the Stanford goal line in Rose Bowl, New Year's Day in 1927, when he scored the touchdown in the last quarter when the Crimson Tide was hopelessly out of a chance for even a tie.

Johnson should make the Gulf Coast Military Academy a valuable tutor. He was a member of Wade-coached eleven at the University of Alabama three years, besides playing for the freshman grid and baseball teams.

Johnson handled the Tide freshmen last season and the freshmen baseball team this past spring. His freshman eleven was not beaten and was not scored upon until the last game of the year.

Prospects for a strong prep school eleven this year are running high among the followers of the Gulf Coast Academy, with the recent acquisition of Coach Bobo as athletic director and with the announcement of Jimmy Johnson as associate coach.

KNOW Your South and be a Partner in its Growth...

Birmingham Industrial Center Of The SOUTH

Birmingham, Ala., has a distinctive air about it. While typically Southern, it possesses the bustle and hustle of a great metropolis. In half a century, it has grown from a small mining settlement of 3,000 souls to a metropolitan area population today of 375,000 persons.

The Seafood Company and the Foster-Fountain Company, of Mississippi, are operating under injunction proceedings now pending in the U. S. Supreme court. Last year these companies attacked the constitutionality of the statute and when they lost in the lower court appealed to the supreme court. Dr. Irvin expects a decision before the end of the year. He is satisfied the legality of the state statute will be upheld.

The secret of its remarkable growth is due to the wealth of natural resources in the mountainous surrounding the city. Here are found together coal, iron, limestone, sand, clay, and materials for making steel. This is the only spot in the world where these three minerals are found together. While first a city noted for making steel, it has in recent years become noted for being a city of diversified manufactures. There are today 800 different industries, making more than 2,000 different articles, including all the essentials of life and many of the luxuries.

Birmingham public schools are now distributed throughout the country and there are two A grade colleges located here.

More persons attend Sunday school and church in Birmingham than in any other city in the South.

It is claimed by many to be the finest municipal course and club in the United States is located in Birmingham. The first unit of a half-million-dollar municipal stadium has recently been completed and some of the leading athletic events of the South are held here.

To know the South—you must see Birmingham.

What the "OLD RELIABLE" means to BIRMINGHAM

The L. & N. and Birmingham have worked hand in hand for nearly 60 years in developing the industrial area of the Birmingham district. The L. & N. has been, and hopes to continue to be, a factor in its industrial progress. Over $100 L. & N. employees work and live in Birmingham territory, drawing nearly $5,000,000 in salaries annually.

The L. & N. serves Birmingham with 26 passenger and freight trains daily. It spends several million dollars yearly in the way of maintenance of equipment, particularly for the purchase of new rolling stock.

With the re-instatement of Bill Tilden, the adage changes slightly to: "They also serve who only stand and write."

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR ANNUAL TARPON RODEO AT THE PASS

Big Fish Will be Sought By 250 Anglers August 30 To September 3

The Pass Christian National Tarpon Association held an enthusiastic meeting Friday night at the Pass Christian city hall, when final plans were completed for the fourth annual tarpon rodeo to be held under the auspices of the club from August 30 to September 3, when valuable trophies will be awarded to the members who catch the first tarpon, the largest tarpon and the largest number of tarpon during the rodeo. Similar prizes will also be awarded at the conclusion of the rodeo to the winners in the annual tarpon tournament which began July 4, and which will terminate with the rodeo.

A report was made from the bait committee, composed of Bernard Knott, G. R. O'Brien and Elwood Abbley, and bait will be available for members participating in the rodeo, and will be furnished by the Tarpon Club. The refreshment committee reported that all arrangements had been made for refreshments for the three days the rodeo, and it is the plan of all the committees to have this rodeo the largest and most successful yet staged by the association. The club is being assisted by the merchants and public spirited citizens of Pass Christian and cooperation is also being given by the Pass Christian Chamber of Commerce.

About two hundred and fifty members are expected to report for the rodeo and invitations have been issued to Governor Graves of Alabama, Long of Louisiana and Bilbo of Mississippi, who are asked to be the guests of the club on the boat that the association will send out each morning to the tarpon hole. The reception committee which is composed of the Coast Mayors from Mayor O'Keefe of New Orleans and Schwartz of Mobile, and with Senator Pat Harrison as chairman, will be on hand to welcome all members as they arrive in Pass Christian, and see that the opening date of the rodeo.

Johnson should make the Gulf Coast Military Academy a valuable tutor. He was a member of Wade-coached eleven at the University of Alabama three years, besides playing for the freshman grid and baseball teams. Johnson handled the Tide freshmen last season and the freshmen baseball team this past spring. His freshman eleven was not beaten and was not scored upon until the last game of the year.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday, August 27, when all plans will be completed.

The tarpon hole is said to be teeming with fish at this time, and is attracting sportmen from all over the country. Seven tarpons have already been caught, the largest measuring over six feet.

LOUISIANA WILL ENFORCE SHRIMP LAW IN WATERS

Patrol Boat Is Placed In Commission By Conservation Department

(Times-Picayune) Patrol boats of the department of conservation were detailed in waters near the mouth of the Mississippi river Thursday by Wilson Holland, director of the enforcement division of the department, to see that the new shrimp law, which prohibits the taking of unshucked shrimp from the waters of Louisiana to foreign states is not violated. The shrimp season opened at midnight Wednesday and the conservation officials are determined to see that the law is obeyed.

Reports to the department Thursday were to the effect that the crop is large and many of the boats were out only a few hours when they returned with full cargoes. Commissioner V. K. Iron has instructed the game wardens to arrest and prosecute all persons found taking unshucked shrimp out of the state.

Narrowly Escapes Injury.

W. H. Starr of the telephone company and his companion, Dan Ziegler, narrowly escaped injury Saturday night when the Ford roadster which he was driving went into a post at the corner of Washington and Hancock streets in an effort to avoid a collision. Mr. Starr was traveling south on Hancock street. A second car was going east on Washington street and a third car was going north on Hancock street. The second car crossed the street successfully. The third car turned the corner and in so doing, jammed Mr. Starr that he was forced to turn into the corner where the Vassall Bakery stands. As the Starr car crashed into the post all four wheels were knocked off the Ford. Neither Mr. Starr nor Mr. Ziegler were injured.

The L. & N. and Birmingham have worked hand in hand for nearly 60 years in developing the industrial area of the Birmingham district. The L. & N. has been, and hopes to continue to be, a factor in its industrial progress. Over $100 L. & N. employees work and live in Birmingham territory, drawing nearly $5,000,000 in salaries annually.

The L. & N. serves Birmingham with 26 passenger and freight trains daily. It spends several million dollars yearly in the way of maintenance of equipment, particularly for the purchase of new rolling stock.

FOLSE POINTS TO GROWTH IN COTTON MILLS

Most Southern States Get One or More New Industries—Mississippi None

(Hattiesburg American)

Growth of the Southern cotton mill industry is along solid and stable lines, it is indicated by a review of textile activities for the past year by the Mississippi State Board of Development. The period was marked by new mills built and enlarged and the purchasing and consolidating of existing mills, it is reported by L. O. Folse, general manager of the Development Board. He believes Mississippi deserves more attention on the part of the cotton operators of the country.

"While the South now has about one-half of the country's spindles in place," he says, "this section has more spindles in operation and is operating them more continuously.

"With the cotton states in 1927 reporting 65,864,979,598 spindle hours operating approximately 64 per cent of the nation's total, the increase over the preceding year was 12 per cent, as against an increase of 4 per cent for the remainder of the country. It is estimated that capital in the Southern Textile industry is $1,100,000,000.

"Southern mills are now operating almost as many spindles as were in use by all the American mills in 1900.

"It is shown by the census of 1925 that the South, employing about 50 per cent of the mill operatives of the country, had nearly 60 per cent of the cotton manufacturing establishments and produced about 60 per cent of the cotton goods of the country.

"While 77 new mills were organized and built in the South since January, and while Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina and South Carolina got one or more, Mississippi got none."

Expression is unanimous from the large number of summer visitors to Bay St. Louis regarding marked improvement of our city within the last year. At no period has the Bay St. Louis district witnessed so many improvements by so many improvements, collossal and permanent. We owe much to the authorities, board of supervisors, roadways and protection commission, and board of city commissioners. Such public improvement should form an incentive to the individual, and the march of progress should be accelerated all the more. We have every faith in the future of this city and county.
